

Nepal & Bangladesh – A plea for help

It's always children who suffer most in a crisis.

Widespread flooding has killed more than 1,200 people and affected millions, destroying crops and raising fears of food shortages and disease.

Aquabox has responded rapidly, airlifting over 150 aid boxes to the affected areas.

We urgently need to send another 250 boxes and 240 water filters, which will cost us £42,000.

But will they get there?

Our trusted partners deliver the aid we send straight to the families who need it.
